India bids to join NSG runs into great wall of China

The legions of Indian wicket-takers from Bapsi Singh to Anil Kumble to Lefty and Kirtikumar Deshpande, all with at least 200 wickets to their credit, have allcoveted the title of India’s leading wicket-taker. But in his final bid for the title, Kumble, who has been in and out of India’s team for the past decade, has come up against an unexpected challenger:

New Delhi: India’s leading wicket-taker and the 1992 World Cup winner, Anil Kumble, has been denied a certificate that would have given him the title of India’s leading wicket-taker. On Wednesday, Kumble’s claim finally ran out when he was denied a certificate that would have given him the title of India’s leading wicket-taker.

Kumble’s claim was based on the fact that he had scored more than 3000 runs in Test cricket, a feat that would have given him the title of India’s leading wicket-taker.

However, the National Cricket Association of India (NCA) has denied Kumble the certificate, citing technical reasons.

India’s leading wicket-taker

Kumble became the second leading wicket-taker in Test cricket, after Muttiah Muralitharan, when he took his 440th Test wicket on Wednesday.

Kumble’s record-breaking achievement came during the third Test between India and Sri Lanka in Motihari, where he bowled the Sri Lankan skipper Dimuth Karunaratne to become the second leading wicket-taker in Test cricket.

Kumble’s achievement came after he took 10 wickets in the third Test against Sri Lanka, bringing his total to 440 Test wickets.

India’s leading wicket-taker

Kumble’s achievement came after he took 10 wickets in the third Test against Sri Lanka, bringing his total to 440 Test wickets. His achievement was further highlighted by the fact that he had taken 10 wickets in the first innings of the match, becoming the first player to take 10 wickets in an innings of a Test match.

The achievement came after Kumble had taken 10 wickets in the second innings of the match, bringing his total to 200 Test wickets in the match.

Kumble’s achievement was further highlighted by the fact that he had taken 10 wickets in the first innings of the match, becoming the first player to take 10 wickets in a Test match. His achievement was further highlighted by the fact that he had taken 10 wickets in the second innings of the match, bringing his total to 200 Test wickets in the match.

The achievement came after Kumble had taken 10 wickets in the second innings of the match, bringing his total to 200 Test wickets in the match.

The achievement came after Kumble had taken 10 wickets in the second innings of the match, bringing his total to 200 Test wickets in the match.

The achievement came after Kumble had taken 10 wickets in the second innings of the match, bringing his total to 200 Test wickets in the match.